PART ONE: THE INNER YOU

In Part One of the interpretations you will read two sections concerned with your individual traits.

The first section describes your ego (sun), emotional make-up (moon), learning and intellectual orientation (Mercury), relationships and sociability (Venus), and the expression and focus of your physical energy (Mars).

The second section describes how well you deal internally with the external situations that you experience in life. Your capacity for happiness (Jupiter), ability to tolerate restrictions and frustrations (Saturn), how you are associated with or relate to new or innovative ideas and methods, and radical ideas and events that upset the status quo (Uranus), how you are associated with or affected by public ideals, morality, and spirituality (Neptune), and how you are associated with or affected by public policies toward crime, toward the power of government and industry, and toward exploration, development, conservation and distribution of natural resources (Pluto).

SUN

The sun rules will power and ego. It is the core of your potential and uniqueness as an individual; who you are and what you are about. It represents the main direction and focus you want your life to take, and your determination to accomplish what you set out to do. It is your personal honesty and integrity, and the ability to command respect and authority, to impress and influence others.

SUN in GEMINI

As the third sign of the zodiac, Gemini represents the third stage in the evolution of man and his place in the universe. Gemini goes beyond the Aries need for the raw energy of survival and the Taurus need to physically touch and experience the material world. In Gemini, it is the intellect that man needs to develop in order to understand the universe. This stage is concerned primarily with information-gathering and Geminis never seem to stop collecting it. They need to express ideas and share information with others, but what they do with their information is another matter. The mature Gemini becomes a serious scholar and careful researcher. The immature Gemini turns into a gossip and the proverbial "jack-of all-trades and master of none".

Geminis readily adapt to change. This trait is a strength because it is a survival mechanism, and a weakness because it makes them vulnerable to the demands and influence of other people. The Twins are the astrological symbol of Gemini. Adopting a twin-like similarity to other people is easy for Gemini. They not only have a unique ability to understand what others are thinking, they also possess great cleverness for imitation. In this way they can maneuver themselves into many favorable positions. They can also lose sight of their own talents and ideas by being too willing and able to adopt the traits and immerse themselves in the personal situations of others. They tend to say what others want to hear instead of saying what they really think, or what they know to be the truth.

Gemini react intellectually to everything they experience in life. That is, before they take physical action, before they assess the practical worth of something, and before they sort out their true emotions, they try to analyze things objectively as a kind of mental exercise. Though it is generally not a true assessment, the intellectual orientation of Gemini can make it appear to others as though they are unfeeling or emotionally superficial.

Mercury, planet of the intellect (and communication in general) rules the sign Gemini. Those born with Sun in Gemini are talkative, quick witted, and have innate curiosity about everything. They keep themselves in a constant state of busyness, running here and there on errands or traveling from one city to another. Natural versatility and ever-changing interests give Gemini their multifaceted personalities. The eagerness and interest they have in what's going on around them contributes to an appearance of youthfulness (both physical and psychological) that most of them manage to retain throughout life. They have to learn to concentrate on one thing at a time, or at least on what they know can be accomplished efficiently and well. Easily jumping from one subject to another, they forget that others are not so nimble. They often have to be reminded to slow down and let others catch up with what they're talking about. They also have to be reminded to stop talking once in a while and listen. Sometimes they neglect to get all the facts before repeating information. Though they can be secretive about their personal affairs, they love to learn about everyone else. They enjoy mysteries and intrigue and don't mind becoming involved in behind the scenes antics of one sort or another. Always wanting to know everything gives them quite a store of information which in turn, makes them more interesting to others. Add to that their cheerful, friendly dispositions, and it isn't surprising that they get along so well in the world.

Since they are apt to spend more time talking than eating, many Gemini are able to stay fairly slim. Their body is usually very flexible and agile, and they enjoy gymnastics, bicycling, swimming, and other activities that keep them physically fit. Favorite sports are tennis, racquetball and similar games in which they can participate with a partner. As a rule, they are adept at tinkering with mechanical devices or doing repair work. Gemini talents also include design, interior decoration, arts and crafts, magic and illusion, and music.

Gemini colors are yellow and light blue. Vulnerable parts of the body are the arms, hands, fingers, lungs, and nervous system. Respiratory problems and various nervous conditions are common Gemini complaints. Agates are traditional Gemini birthstones. Appropriate to the multifaceted Gemini personality, this mineral is streaked with many colors. It may seem Gemini is scattered and thus weakened by the wide range of interests and abilities, but the steel-like hardness of agate is a reminder that the Gemini personality and character can be just as strong as it is varied. Gemini flowers include the lilac, azalea, and lily-of-the-valley.

MOON

The moon rules desire as opposed to ego, need as opposed to expediency or reason. It describes how you feel about yourself, how you handle relationships, and how you emotionally respond to situations and experiences. It describes the flow of your daily functions; physical, emotional, and mental. The moon represents your residence and domestic environment. It rules babies and young children, your mother and other important females in your life.

MOON in SAGITTARIUS

Those born with the moon in a Fire sign want to turn their feelings into physical experiences. They do not initially view their desires from the standpoint of practicality, emotional commitment, or as lessons to be learned. Before anything else there has to be action, some form of instant physical gratification. As lunar Fire sign personalities, those born with moon in Sagittarius are idealistic and romantic. Their risk-taking, adventurous spirit and magnanimous generosity are a curse as well as a blessing. It leaves them vulnerable to those who exploit their generosity, but it is also the combination of spirit and attitude needed for enormous success in enterprises that more cautious people would be afraid to try. They are open and honest with a tendency to be too candid at times, especially in situations that require a more diplomatic approach. Impatience can be the biggest stumbling block to success. They are not reluctant to make long-term emotional commitments, but relationships or situations that do not encourage them to retain a certain amount of personal freedom, are not likely to last long.

Sagittarius moon personalities are emotionally adaptable to changing circumstances and different relationships. A duality of nature makes them appear fickle and emotionally insecure while at the same time, steadfast, and independent. Readily impressed by those with power and status, they seek to associate with such people to increase their own advancement; one of their main goals in life. Concerned with making an impression on others, they may be guilty of inflating their knowledge and importance. Attracted to architecture, art and design many of them also have talent for mimicry and acting. For these lunar personalities, the best opportunities are in writing, teaching, performing, sales, education and communication.

Women with Sagittarius moon make better friends than lovers, though their restlessness may lead to many sexual adventures. Friendship is very important to them and their temperament is not well suited to domestic life. Men with Sagittarius moon are inveterate chasers of the ideal woman. Their emotional nature is uncomplicated, loyal, and at times, amazingly prophetic.

MERCURY

Mercury indicates mental outlook, intellectual endeavors, the way you think and communicate. It represents ideas, methods, and information. It rules your hands and thus your manual dexterity and mechanical skills. Mercury also describes transportation; that is, how you get where you're going physically and mentally. Do you speed with all possible haste or amble along taking a few detours here and there?

MERCURY in CANCER

The enhanced emotional influence of Mercury in Cancer implies imagination, creativity or artistic talent. These individuals may find it difficult to separate their thoughts from their feelings. They are extremely susceptible to consciously or subconsciously absorbing the ideas and thoughts of those around them. This makes objectivity and originality hard for them to generate. They can, however, inject valuable intuitive or instinctive elements into ideas or into the expression of ideas to make them more appealing and effective. Whatever their ideas may be, or however they may have been generated, Mercury in Cancer individuals need to find some means of personally expressing them. They will not be content to go unnoticed or unappreciated. Methods and motivation for learning, communication and transportation are subject to their prevailing mood at any given time.

VENUS

Venus rules your social attitudes and behavior, and your aesthetic tastes and inclinations. It is female relationships and social interactions at every level. Venus indicates your values. It describes romance, marriage and other partnerships, capacity for humor, and the pursuit of pleasure.

VENUS in CANCER

♀ in ♋

The social orientation of individuals with natal Venus in Cancer is very much affected by their emotional state at any given time. Sensitive though not particularly shy, they may be the one to take the initiative in relationships. Unless other factors interfere, they enjoy domestic and family life. Even confirmed bachelors with this Venus position tend to keep cozy, well-managed homes in spite of the lack of a spouse or offspring. They are also responsive to the needs and welfare of parents or siblings. Social attitudes and behavior of these individuals are warm and caring, but they can be too possessive and jealous, driving away the very people for whom they care the most.

MARS

Mars rules physical energy and efforts. It describes the strength and direction of the physical force that drives your ego, fires your emotions, and encourages your mental endeavors and communicative skills. It describes male relationships and associations, risk-taking inclinations, and the physical challenges you are likely to encounter.

MARS in SAGITTARIUS

♂ in ♎

The actions of individuals with natal Mars in Sagittarius are enthusiastic and inspired. Spurred on by the excitement of a given moment, they act quickly and decisively. However, they can quickly lose interest and head off in a different direction, leaving others to finish their work. Their intellectual curiosity is easily aroused, and they enjoy absorbing, collecting, and sharing all types of information. They need to develop patience and organization or the facts that they accumulate become disconnected and they end up repeating themselves. They are apt to have mechanical or artistic skills and the ability to mimic. They are gifted actors, sales persons, clerics, writers, teachers and musicians. They accomplish more if given a certain amount of latitude and independence in which to perform their tasks.

JUPITER

Jupiter rules your potential for growth and expansion on many levels; physical, intellectual, spiritual, cultural, and the accumulation of material assets, power, and status. It describes your optimism and aspirations. It represents your father and his position in society.

JUPITER in LIBRA

♃ in ♎

Individuals with Jupiter in Libra are often dependent for personal growth on the stimulation they derive from others, and the contacts they make by constant interactions with others. Working in partnership, joint ventures, and other cooperate efforts is the key to their success. Jupiter's influence in Libra indicates increased capacity to get along with, and favorably influence others. It also indicates an inspired sense of justice. The desire they have for growth is generally in an intellectual or aesthetic area. To attain what they seek, these individuals have to deal successfully with Jupiter's tendency for overabundance and Libra's need to strike a balance between excess and austerity.

SATURN

Saturn rules responsibilities, restrictions and limitations you are apt to encounter, and the lessons you must learn in life. It does not deny or diminish imagination, inspiration, spirituality, and good fortune but it does demand that these things be given structure and meaning.

SATURN in LIBRA

♄ in ♎

Most of the restrictions encountered by individuals with natal Saturn in Libra involve interactions with other people, partnerships, or contractual arrangements. Interactions with others tend to get complicated no matter how fleeting the association may be. They tend to get more involved in situations than they had originally intended to. If something in their development or background knocks them off balance, they may tend to stay away from all relationships. On the positive side this also implies stable and long-lasting relationships.

URANUS

Uranus rules personal as well as societal freedom. It indicates originality of thought and expression. In society it rules radical ideas and people as well as revolutionary events that upset established structures. Uranus takes approximately seven years to transit one sign, taking about 84 years to complete all twelve signs. Since groups of people with Uranus in the same sign are separated by 84 years, the influence of this planet in a sign is generational. The personal implications of Uranus in your life are described by its house position and the aspects it makes with other planets in your natal chart. It describes areas of unpredictability, and where you or your life style may be different than those around you. It relates to the unusual or unique. Friends and associations to which you belong are also indicated, as is your potential involvement with science and technology, computers, and the media.

URANUS in PISCES

♅ in ♓

The generation of individuals born with natal Uranus in Pisces are more innovative and creative. The truly different and the truly weird are commonplace manifestations of their talents and endeavors. They also contribute concepts and methods that are undeniably far-sighted and ingenious.

NEPTUNE

Neptune rules those who are oppressed or abandoned; the misfits of society. On a higher level it rules visionaries, and those who are glamorous and charismatic. It represents spirituality, mysticism, and ideals. Neptune is in one sign for approximately thirteen years, taking about 164 years to complete its cycle through all twelve signs. Since 164 years separate people born during its transit of one sign and those born when it returns, Neptune's significance in any sign is described as generational or historical. On a personal level, Neptune's house position and the aspects it makes with other planets in your natal chart will describe spirituality, abstract thinking, illusion, disillusionment, and other areas of your life where things aren't always what they seem. It rules derangement, guilt, persecution, and describes the potential for experiences related to confinement, abandonment, and addiction or physical intolerance to drugs.

NEPTUNE in LEO

♆ in ♌

The last period of Neptune in Leo was 1914-1929. Leo rules monarchy, entertainment and art. The Russian monarchy ended, largely because it refused (in typical Neptunian fashion) to deal with the troubled conditions that existed in that country. The movie industry saw its greatest growth and development. The avant-garde nature of Leo combined with Neptune produced the Dada artistic and literary movement which in turn, led to surrealism.

PLUTO

Pluto takes approximately 248 years to make one cycle through all twelve signs. The period Pluto spends in each sign can vary from twelve years to thirty two years due to the eccentricity of its orbit. Like atomic energy (a force ruled by Pluto), the presence and direction of Pluto's energy are never obvious until it is used. Pluto's influence in any sign is interpreted as generational or historical. In your personal life, Pluto's significance is interpreted from its house position and the aspects it makes to other natal planets in your horoscope. Pluto rules intense energy, and describes the areas in which you consciously or subconsciously seek to exercise power or control. Pluto is also linked to your karmic responsibility, and in this respect, it describes the areas where you must gain the deepest level of understanding.

PLUTO in CANCER

♇ in ♋

Pluto's last period in Cancer was 1912-1939. Cancer rules women and the family. During the 20's the attitudes and roles of women were transformed. They demanded greater freedom in society and release from the drudgery of domestic chores. As a result of the increasing number of women seeking employment outside of the home, family life also changed dramatically.

PART TWO: THE OUTER YOU

In Part Two you will read about the twelve houses of the horoscope. The houses represent areas of life in which you operate on a daily basis. You will read descriptions of how you handle the circumstances you encounter in each of these areas, according to your nature, personality and other traits as they are outlined in Part One.

HOUSE 1

The first house and the sign that rules the first house, which is also known as the Ascendant or Rising sign, describes your outer personality and physical attributes. To some extent it also describes your health and the type of illnesses you may experience.

CANCER ASCENDANT

♋ on 1st

A Cancer Ascendant indicates those who are dedicated to satisfying their personal ambitions. However, they can appear so vulnerable that it is difficult for others to determine just how determined or strong they really are. They can be quite circumspect and hesitant to reveal their true goals until they are certain of success. There is potential they will have traumatic partnerships, especially marriage. Many of them prefer to marry late in life, and tend to select older or more mature partners or those who represent an authority figure.

They are emotionally oriented and may attempt to hide this vulnerability behind a facade of forcefulness even though, more often than not, the ploy is unsuccessful. Emotional vulnerability does not deny personal magnetism or ambition. In fact their emotional commitment to something often causes them to work twice as hard as anyone else, becoming quite successful in the bargain. Home is not just where their hearts are, it is usually where they want to physically spend most of their time and attention.

Cancer is ruled by the moon, which implies strong nurturing instincts that are evidenced in their caring, sympathetic personalities. In return, they also seek to be "mothered" and may be guided in life by a strong person (usually female) who fills this role. Their personalities are subject to great changes. Consciously or subconsciously they are highly influenced by others. They may, for example, adopt the latest fashions or mode of behavior whether or not it is personally flattering, or they may pursue certain activities they feel give them social status rather than being something they may truly enjoy.

They are apt to possess culinary skills, and design or architectural ability. Whether or not they have talent in these areas, they are apt to have great interest in them. Roundness of face, pale, sensitive skin, and baldness or finely textured hair are physical attributes identified with Cancer Ascendant. Their bodies have a strong tendency to retain water. Their emotional orientation is indicative of an addictive nature, which means it is difficult to escape a battle with excess weight or addictive substances. The breasts, stomach, and digestive system are apt to be their most physically vulnerable areas.

VENUS in 1st HOUSE

♀ in 1st

Venus in the first house suggests those with much personal charm and, in most cases, physical attractiveness as well. Though some of them may at times be avant garde as a social statement of sorts, they rarely go to extremes in either their looks or personality. Their features, especially facial features, are evenly balanced. Even if they are not beautiful, their charming personality and mannerisms enhance their physical appearance. They enjoy dressing well, and use cosmetics and other beauty aids with desirable results. The negative potential associated with Venus includes those who may be rude or anti-social. It can also mean either those with total disregard for anything other than their appearance, or those with a completely uncaring attitude about how they look or behave.

VENUS trine URANUS

**♀ △ ♃

Part of the reason those with Venus trine Uranus are apt to succeed in life is because of their amiable personal approach in meeting people, an approach that makes strangers feel they have known these individuals all their lives. They are egalitarian and do not fear crossing or defying social barriers. There are no hidden meanings in their actions or conversation and no complicated strings attached to their social relationships.

HOUSE 2

The second house describes material assets, how you handle monetary income, and the potential ways it may be earned. It also indicates the values and priorities you establish throughout life.

CANCER on 2nd HOUSE

♋ on 2nd

Cancer ruling the second house indicates individuals who tend to equate money or personal assets with emotional security. They are apt to exhibit this Cancerian influence in one of two classic behavior patterns. Either they find it difficult to hang on to resources because they spend money when emotionally upset, or they are very conservative, even miserly about spending assets because without these assets they feel vulnerable and insecure. The more common tendency for these individuals is to engage in impulse buying or acquire property of one sort or another as a way of seeking emotional consolation. There is also strong potential they will consciously or subconsciously attempt to use money or status to buy the affections of others, or in turn allow their own affections to be bartered in the same way. They can demonstrate great flexibility when it comes to priorities. What they deem important today may not be so important tomorrow. There is possibility of family inheritance or income from a family trust, just as there is also the possibility of having to take financial responsibility for family members.

NEPTUNE in 2nd HOUSE

♆ in 2nd

Individuals with Neptune in the second house must preserve what they value or it may be lost, sometimes even before they realize that such a danger exists. These individuals may never quite figure out what it is they truly value. So attuned to higher planes of consciousness, they may put far more value on their soul than on their bank account. There is strong potential for bankruptcy, or at least a steady erosion of assets. The influence of Neptune can mean these individuals pay little heed to their financial status and as a result, may always live on the edge of debt. Some may go in the opposite direction and develop paranoia about losing their assets. They suspect everyone of trying to cheat them. There is potential for the income of these individuals to be derived through Neptune-related areas such as photography, movies, chemicals, oil, boats, religion, water (maritime industries or activities), dancing, theater, or work involving handicapped, confined, or underprivileged people. These individuals may have a difficult time setting or sticking to priorities. They may get sympathy, understanding, or money from the father, but whatever he provides is not likely to be what they may need the most.

HOUSE 3

The third house describes your mental state, intellectual orientation, self-expression and communication, early education, mechanical dexterity and skills, immediate environment (neighborhood), and siblings. It indicates physical actions, and transportation, especially within your immediate environment. To a certain extent the third house also describes the job or health of your father.

LEO on 3rd HOUSE

♌ on 3rd

Leo ruling the third house indicates individuals who are likely to assert themselves and their ideas through all kinds of communication networks they set up, and by being (or trying to be) everywhere at once. Their need for self-expression goes beyond mere desire. Thoughts and ideas are the direct expression of their egos. In turn this implies they need to find ways to express themselves as a means of preserving their egos. They want to develop their ideas, but it doesn't necessarily mean they will seek a formal education. Nor does the desire to assert their ideas signify they will seek public recognition. They may be content, for example, with a simple thing like keeping a diary. If they have talent their egos find adequate expression in artistic endeavors. There is likely to be much interaction with others in their immediate vicinity such as family members or neighbors. Their facility and need for communication may turn them into constant travelers, letter writers, and telephone users. They enjoy dealing with information and ideas.

HOUSE 4

The fourth house describes your residence, domestic environment, and family members, especially your mother. It indicates the beginning as well as the end of various cycles in your life.

VIRGO on 4th HOUSE

♍ on 4th

Virgo ruling the fourth house indicates those who are likely to prefer working at home or spend a great deal of time with hobbies or projects at home. They often possess extensive collections of magazines and other factual material. If they happen to be more mechanically inclined than intellectually oriented, their homes become bases for tinkering with mechanical devices, the most popular of which are automobiles. Because of the sensitive, critical nature of Virgo, its influence implies they have a critical eye toward certain aspects of their households. They may, for example, have a compulsion to maintain neat well-organized homes. They allow their homes to be used for community meetings or other neighborhood projects. The negative potential of Virgo's influence can mean arguments or separation from siblings, as well as estrangements and disagreements with neighbors. Virgo's influence suggests that the domestic nature of these individuals can be very restless, indicating frequent changes of residence, frequent alterations to their homes, or maintaining more than one residence.

JUPITER in 4th HOUSE

♃ in 4th

Jupiter in the fourth house indicates individuals who enjoy warmth, merriness, and generosity in their home and family. Their homes, either as children and/or as adults, may be quite grand or opulent, characterizing the best advantages that life has to offer. Jupiter in the fourth house also suggests those likely to be raised in an environment that encourages independent thinking and personal growth, and that emphasizes religion, education, or cultural pursuits. The negative potential can mean those who suffer from the effect of an environment that is too permissive, or one that places too much importance on material wealth or status and not enough on developing personal character and loving relationships. The influence of Jupiter suggests individuals who are born in a foreign country or whose parents are of foreign birth. More than one language may be spoken in their home. The fourth house is the beginning as well as the end of things. No matter what happens to these individuals, they are apt to be fortunate enough to land on their feet.

JUPITER square PLUTO

**♃ □ ♇

Jupiter square Pluto implies a generation that succeeds through sheer force of will power. Societal situations which confront these individuals involve issues of power and control and, as a result, they are forced to analyze and understand human psychological motivations and behavioral patterns. How much of this spills into their private affairs is a matter of other factors in their personalities and backgrounds.

SATURN in 4th HOUSE

♄ in 4th

Saturn in the fourth house can mean those who are deprived of a parent early in life. It also suggests austerity and strictness that may apply to the personality of one or both parents, to the emotional content of their home, or to physical aspects of their surroundings. Whatever their actual childhood circumstance or family history may be, these individuals harbor great concerns about it. As adults they may be strict and inflexible in their own domestic environment, or be so negative as to dismiss any notion of establishing a home or family. Saturn's positive influence includes those who enjoy very stable family relationships. It also indicates those who live their entire life in the same house or hometown. The negative potential includes those who are homebound, unable through illness or disease to leave their residence. How these individuals learn to handle any hardships related to home and family is an important key to their happiness and success.

HOUSE 5

The fifth house describes your creative talent and imaginative powers, capacity for enjoyment and the pursuit of pleasure, romance, children, and speculative ventures.

LIBRA on 5th HOUSE

 on 5th

Libra ruling the fifth house indicates the possibility of individuals who can raise the pursuit of pleasure to a fine art. They are likely to have the capacity to genuinely enjoy the physical pleasures that life has to offer, and are often just plain lucky as well. They love to be dressed in the very best and most beautiful clothes, and to attend the very finest and most elegant places to dine and be entertained. They usually have such wonderful manners and personal charm others don't notice or become offended if they happen to overindulge themselves. They are among the world's best and most romantic lovers, and their conquests often don't seem to mind being only one in a long line of romantic partners. The negative potential can mean inability to enjoy things, problems with children or romance, and bad luck in speculative ventures. A fifth house Libra influence indicates those who are very artistic and may be talented stage or costume designers, musicians, writers or illustrators. They are apt to have wonderful social rapport with children, understanding instinctively what will amuse and entertain them.

HOUSE 6

The sixth house describes your job, daily responsibilities (paid and unpaid), and those who work for or with you. It also represents your health, and physical fitness.

SAGITTARIUS on 6th HOUSE

 on 6th

Sagittarius ruling the sixth house indicates individuals with a strong streak of independence that urges many of them to operate their own businesses rather than work for others. However even those don't mind being employed by others, are still likely to have a very independent attitude toward work habits. They are happiest when allowed to work unsupervised, set their own pace, decide their own deadlines, and fix their own schedules. The negative potential can mean those with health problems caused by overindulgence. Their job performance may suffer from chronic disorganization or procrastination, or a too-confining work environment. They prefer jobs that involve selling, sports, traveling or publishing. They also enjoy consulting, law, education, religion, and art. They are apt to be animal lovers, though as animal trainers they may lack the urge to maintain the constant discipline needed for control. The same thing may be said about their personal lives and relationships with those who work for or with them.

MOON in 6th HOUSE

 in 6th

Moon in the sixth house indicates vulnerability to a continuing variety of medical complaints, especially stomach or digestive disorders. The ailments of these individuals are usually not major threats but can disrupt their work and routine schedules. They are apt to operate a business from their home, or seek jobs related to homes, food, family life, women, or children. They develop mothering instincts and other strong emotional identification toward those who work for or with them. They may work better with women than with men. Work habits may be inconsistent as is their ability to stay in jobs. Their general health and psychological outlook are strongly affected by their work, and when the work environment or responsibilities are upsetting for some reason, inefficiency and absences are the result.

MARS in 6th HOUSE

 in 6th

Mars in the sixth house indicates those who concentrate much energy and vitality in their work. It indicates mechanical skills, and many of these individuals are inventors, surgeons, tailors, machinists, engineers, builders, and inveterate tinkerers. Those with managerial skills are tireless administrators who know how to extract maximum efficiency from their staffs. There is potential for them to choose a line of work that involves an element of risk. The risk could be physical, economic, or, in the case of those who work with very ill or disturbed people, it could be emotional. Their work may involve manufacture or sale of knives, weapons, explosives, or fire-fighting equipment. Whatever their job, they are happiest in active environments that offer a wide variety of challenges and tasks. The influence of Mars also suggests enthusiasm for maintaining health and physical fitness. If other factors contribute to giving them a high level of energy, they have no trouble engaging in a variety of activities that keep them in shape. They must guard against high blood pressure, fever, headaches, and stress.

MARS square URANUS

Those with Mars square Uranus are bound to have a quirk or two. They veer from the traditional path from time to time, or perhaps make a lifetime project of seeking unusual or alternative life styles. They are willful and independent, and even those who settle down to marriage and regular jobs may grow restless and unhappy if too much confinement or control is imposed.

MARS trine NEPTUNE

Even if they possess a harder side more in tune with reality, there is also a certain mellow, philosophical, or spiritual sense in how they think and conduct themselves. They are attracted to people and situations that appear glamorous, sensuous, or uplifting in one way or another. Artistically talented with astute intuitions, they often have the good fortune to be in the right place at the right time and know exactly what to do, or as the case may be, what not to do.

HOUSE 7

The seventh house relates to marriage and partnership or joint ventures of any kind. It describes how you interact with people and how others tend to regard you. The seventh house is associated with legal matters, negotiations, contracts, and all open confrontations, pleasant as well as adversarial.

CAPRICORN on 7th HOUSE

Capricorn ruling the seventh house has many implications concerning the marital situation of these individuals. One of the first considerations is that they are not apt to meet with good fortune if they marry too young or without a great deal of consideration. There is also the possibility they will marry someone older or more mature. If there are negative factors in their personalities or backgrounds it can mean marriage and its attendant responsibilities may seem so severe as to prohibit their ever attempting to marry. Yet another potentiality is that either they or their marriage partners will view marriage as a means of obtaining security. There is no direct implication of whether they are the ones to embark on such a venture, or the ones destined to be married for their money or status. Capricorn's influence on the seventh house does not mean marriage will be unhappy and indeed, it may be stable, enduring, and become happier as the years go by. However, others may tend to regard their marriages as restrictive, too formal or somber. It may be difficult for them to enter into light-hearted relationships, and whether they mean to or not, may acquire responsibilities for people in whom they have no special interest.

HOUSE 8

The eighth house is related to taxes, debt, death, legacies, and the income you receive through marriage or business partner(s). It describes your resourcefulness, and your ability to develop and use material assets as well as personal skills and abilities. The eighth house also indicates sexual attitudes and behavior.

CAPRICORN on 8th HOUSE

♄ on 8th

Capricorn ruling the eighth house indicates those whose marriage or business partners may have very few material resources to contribute. It is also possible that their partners are unwilling to either enjoy or share personal assets with them. This may also be the situation with regard to anything these individuals inherit, that is, it may be so small as to be negligible, or if it is a considerable estate, it may turn out to bring more sorrow than joy to their lives. Capricorn's influence can also be positive since it can engender responsible handling of finances, which in turn, helps preserve and improve the status of resources. If there are negative factors in their personalities or backgrounds it can mean the possibility of inherited illnesses or physical defects. These individuals may harbor aversions to insurance matters and neglect them altogether, or worry excessively about being adequately protected. They may fear death, and perhaps even more, the tax collector. If not sufficiently in awe of the IRS, they should be, since discrepancies in which they indulge in this area are sure to be discovered.

HOUSE 9

The ninth house describes higher education, advanced training, publishing, publicity, advertising, politics, foreign travel, foreign studies, religious and philosophical views and activities, and cultural pursuits. It relates to court decisions, a second marriage, and in-laws. To a certain extent the ninth house also describes the job or health of your mother.

AQUARIUS on 9th HOUSE

♈ on 9th

Aquarius ruling the ninth house suggests that in the matter of higher education or advanced training, these individuals may be better suited to being self-taught. It isn't necessarily that they aren't willing or able to pursue higher education, but there is potential they may be too restless and independent to endure lectures and formal instructions. Left to their own methods and motivations however, they may become expert on subjects that interest them and develop impressive mechanical or artistic skills with little or no formal instruction. There is also implication with unpredictable Aquarius that they may experience sudden or unexpected disruptions in their education or training, and perhaps even be required to begin again at a later time. Religious or philosophical views are apt to be unpredictable and unorthodox. Even if they do not adopt totally radical views, their ideas are vulnerable to sudden change and they may rebel against traditional ideas and practices. They may also lean so far toward the traditional as to become ultraconservative and fanatical. This same point can be made about their ideas relating to art, music, or literature.

HOUSE 10

The tenth house describes your career and other long-range goals, public reputation, superiors and those in authority. It also relates to your father and his influence in your life.

PISCES on 10th HOUSE

♊ on 10th

Pisces ruling the tenth house indicates individuals who may face the necessity for guarding their reputations since there is danger of scandal or being connected with someone else's disgrace. There is also a possibility they will have glamorous or mysterious public images. Their marriage or business partners may be found among those who live or were raised near water. The influence of Pisces implies several situations related to a parent, in most cases, the father. They may, for example, be abandoned, either literally or figuratively, by the father. There may also be a secret or sorrow or depression connected with the father, or he may be disabled, suffer from mental or emotional problems, or be addicted to alcohol or drugs. Negative potential includes the possibility of failure to get recognition they deserve or to achieve their goals. The career or long range goals they seek may involve aiding those who are disabled, institutionalized, underprivileged, or minorities. Religion, theater, dance, art, medicine, or maritime industries are other possible areas that hold the key to their destinies.

URANUS in 10th HOUSE

♅ in 10th

Uranus in the tenth house indicates those who may unexpectedly attract public attention. Noteworthy activities that bring these individuals into the spotlight are likely to be connected with some impact they make on society, which can mean anything from criminal acts to humanitarian projects. These individuals may also have unusual or unorthodox supervisors. One of the strongest implications of Uranus in the tenth house is that at some point, usually after they have embarked on a particular career or life style, they are apt to go off in a completely different direction. Even if they do not initiate such a switch, some momentous circumstance over which they have no control can turn their life around. The influence of Uranus also implies that their career or activities may be unorthodox, dealing with an unusual subject or requiring unusual skills. Those who follow a more traditional career are usually attracted to medicine, music, communication, teaching, social work, computers, or the media. These individuals may suddenly or unexpectedly be separated from their father, or he may be unusual or unorthodox in some way. They rebel against authority and restrictions. When it suits their long-range purpose, however, they happily embrace more traditional ideas and methods.

URANUS trine PLUTO

Uranus trine Pluto only applies to those born in the first half of the 1920's. Uranus upsets the status quo and Pluto transforms. In the 1920's the aspect had particular reference to upsetting and transforming the status quo of and between the sexes. Women cut their hair and shortened their dresses, and that was only the superficial part of a transformation that would eventually alter forever the traditional roles of men and women. Those born into this society are affected to some degree by this transformation. How much depends on other factors in their personalities and backgrounds.

HOUSE 11

The eleventh house rules friendships, organizations to which you belong, and income derived from self-employment or career (as opposed to wages earned from a job). It relates to the role you play in the lives of others as child, parent, lover, spouse, friend, social or business associate. The eleventh house also describes your hopes and aspirations and capacity for happiness.

ARIES on 11th HOUSE

Aries ruling the eleventh house indicates the likelihood of individuals who put their energy and vitality into establishing a wide range of social contacts and participating in the activities of clubs and organizations. The enthusiasm and energy of Aries influences and enhances their social lives and their friendships. Their friends are likely to fit an Aries description which means they will include soldiers, hunters, pioneers, sports enthusiasts, inventors, and risk-takers of every description, as well as those with energetic go-getting attitudes. The negative potential connected with Aries on the eleventh house can mean individuals who develop antisocial attitudes, rudeness or irascibility. They may provoke or participate in arguments and open confrontations. It can also mean individuals who are never happy with what they have. They may work very hard to achieve something, only to decide they want something more or something else entirely. They may have many acquaintances but few friends, there being more energy and quickly-burned passion in their contacts than long term emotional commitment.

HOUSE 12

The twelfth house describes the private and hidden side of life; your subconscious mind, dreams, the past, and those who wish you harm or work against your interests. The twelfth house relates to sorrow, disappointment, loss, solitude or confinement, hidden fears and worry. It also has connection with the job or health of your marriage or business partner.

GEMINI on 12th HOUSE

♊ on 12th

Gemini ruling the twelfth house indicates individuals who may keep many of their ideas and thoughts to themselves. As a rule they are able to think and communicate more effectively in quiet environments. They are attracted to investigations that go beyond the physical planes, such as the subconscious, dreams, and extra sensory perception. Their thoughts and ideas are not always based on logical reasoning but are often a result of instinct or intuition. Sometimes this type of thinking works, and sometimes they need to get a clearer sense of reality. They can become prisoners of their own minds. The influence of Gemini suggests the possibility of being involved in communication or computers connected with hospitals, prisons, charitable institutions, or mental institutions. Their marriage partners may be clerics, artists, or they may work in law, contract negotiations, teaching, writing, or publishing.

SUN in 12th HOUSE

☉ in 12th

Sun in the twelfth house indicates individuals whose ego is tied not so much to what they have gained as it is to what they have lost. Others may never really come to know or fully understand their real desires or personality. However, they can surprise others (as well as themselves) with just how strong or determined they can be when they want something. They are apt to possess keen interest in psychic energies, the occult, dreams, and the subconscious mind. They may also be deeply influenced by superstition or their past. A twelfth house sun is a strong implication of those who prefer exerting their real control or influence in life behind the scenes. Even those whose life style or work involves the public at large may go out of their way to avoid people on a personal level.

SUN opposite MARS

☉ ☿♂

Sun opposite Mars indicates that whether by choice or circumstance these individuals always seem to be on the edge of direct confrontations. As a rule they will not pass up a challenge, especially physical ones, finding it necessary to prove themselves at every turn. Though they may possess spirit and courage, they can also be resentful of confinement and restrictions, making it hard for them to accept even the mildest form of authority.

SUN square URANUS

Sun square Uranus indicates those who tend to be highly eccentric, or at least have some eccentricities hidden in what others may view as their fairly straight personalities or demeanors. They may even surprise themselves by their own behavior and reactions to things, which are by no means predictable or consistent from one time to the next. Obstacles they encounter in life are often unexpected and may be unusual.

SUN sextile NEPTUNE

Sun sextile Neptune suggests those who are apt to have highly developed intuition when it comes to taking advantage of opportunities. However, they can be guilty of letting lack of ambition or laziness prevent them from exploiting their advantages. Many opportunities that come their way represent the chance to gain spiritual or artistic growth.

MERCURY in 12th HOUSE

Mercury in the twelfth house indicates those who tend to keep many of their ideas and thoughts to themselves. It also implies they are able to think better when they are alone or in quiet environments. They are apt to be interested in studying dreams, the subconscious, and ESP. Their thinking may not be in the least bit faulty but it is often likely to be based as much on instinct or intuition as it is on logic or reasoning. Sometimes this type of thinking works, and sometimes they need to get a clearer sense of reality. If there are negative factors in their personality or background, it can mean depression and becoming a prisoner of their own mind. Mercury's positive potential includes a photographic memory, fabulous imagination, remarkable investigative skills, and the ability to become a master of disguise. Their work may involve something normally hidden or out of sight to others. It may also involve writing, computers, and communications, especially in areas related to hospitals, prisons, or charitable institutions. Mercury's influence in the twelfth house also includes secret activities or dealing with secret communications, ciphers or other forms of code.

MERCURY square SATURN

There is no lack of intelligence in those with Mercury square Saturn, but there may be some restriction or inhibition concerning self expression. They may cling to outmoded principles or be too dictatorial in communicating thoughts and ideas. They may suffer from lack of imagination or the means to express it. Mechanical skills can desert them at times, and care should be taken when operating machinery.

PLUTO in 12th HOUSE

♇ in 12th

Pluto in the twelfth house indicates those who are keenly alert to their dreams, subconscious mind, and psychic energy. Many of these individuals pursue their understanding in these things in order to gain the hidden strength and power that comes from such awareness. Other potentials for Pluto's twelfth house influence include those who are involved in secret activities, and those who learn to sublimate their physical desires into mystical experiences. Whether or not they get involved in the occult or subconscious mind, most of these individuals are intensely private. They prefer to exercise their influence behind the scenes, and they may deliberately hide their monetary assets and other resources. They may actively seek a solitary existence. Pluto's influence also indicates those whose marriage partner may work in research and development, the funeral business, or areas that involve secrecy or managing public resources.
